

Perceiving Snow as a "Resource" : A Perspective from Japanese Culture

La neige comme « ressource » dans la culture japonaise

■ Snow-Cooled Storage (Snow Room) <Natural Convection Method>

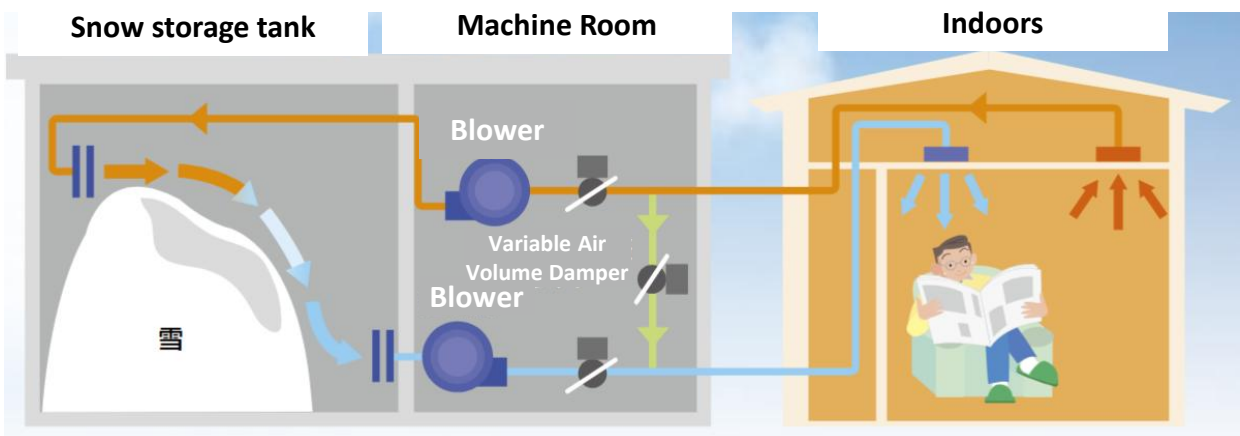

Michi-no-Eki Takano,
Shobara City

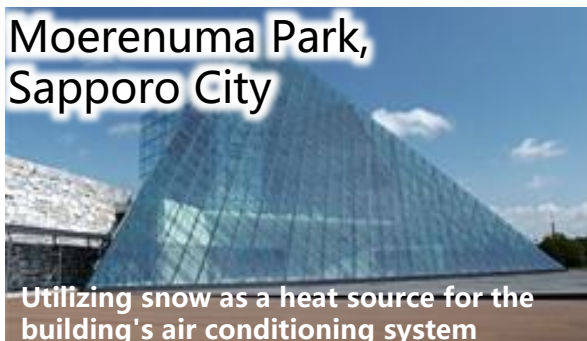

Utilizing snow to preserve food and beverages for extended periods at low temperatures and high humidity

■ Snow Cooling System <Full Air Circulation System>

Moerenuma Park,
Sapporo City

Utilizing snow as a heat source for the building's air conditioning system

